

Gwen Gutwein

Gwen Gutwein has been a successful artist since graduating from Indiana University in the early 80s. She has exhibited her paintings in galleries and museums in Indiana and throughout the United States. Her paintings continue to achieve acknowledgements and awards.

In 2004 Gwen started a painting project trademarked Heritage Barns. She is in the process of selecting two historic barns from each of Indiana's 92 counties, and doing paintings on location. More exhibits from this series of paintings are currently on tour.

Gwen teaches private and semi-private painting classes in her studio in Fort Wayne, Indiana, as well as workshops in other locations.